

Patricia Arvielo

2018 – 2024

LAS VEGAS, NV

Patty Arvielo has been a leader in the mortgage industry for more than 40 years. She is a results-driven entrepreneur who co-founded and leads the nation's largest woman-owned and Latina-owned mortgage company in the U.S., New American Funding. A first-generation Hispanic American, Arvielo is driven to create homeownership opportunities for minority communities, leading New American Funding to become an industry leader in lending to minority borrowers. In fact, New American Funding is a top lender in the mortgage industry in lending to Hispanic and African American borrowers. New American Funding is the #1 lender to Hispanics with a higher percentage of loans to Hispanics than any other top-25 lender. New American Funding's percentage of purchase lending to Hispanics is 51% more than the industry percentage, and its purchase lending to African American borrowers is 85% more than the industry percentage, based on HMDA data. Patty has also created a company workforce that mirrors the country, with minorities making up 45% of the company's employees, 23% of whom are Hispanic.

She is a 13-time Stevie Award winner, was inducted into the EY Entrepreneur of the Year Hall of Fame, named one of Most Powerful Women in Mortgage, by Mortgage Banker Magazine, recognized as one of the Top 100 Most Influential Latinas by Latino Leaders Magazine, and named Latina Style's Latina Executive of the Year and Corporate Leader in 2020. Additionally, Patty serves on the National Park Foundation Board of Directors and is serving a three-year term on the Harvard Kennedy School Board and serves on the Board of Directors for Century Communities. She is also a member of the Mortgage Bankers Association Residential Board of Governors, the Latino Donor Collaborative Board, Board of Directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Orange County, and the Mortgage Bankers Association Affordable Homeownership Advisory Council. She also serves as a member of the Housing Counseling Federal Advisory Committee, a group that advises the Department of Housing and Urban Development on ways to build sustainable homeownership. Patty has also recently expanded her business empire by acquiring a 50% majority stake in #WeAllGrow Latina, one of the largest Latina social media platforms, and investing in Encantos, an award-winning educational technology company that focuses on bilingual education.
