

Steven A. Denning

2015 – 2023

Greenwich, CT

Steven A. Denning is the Chairman of General Atlantic LLC, a global private equity firm. He joined the firm in 1980 and has built the organization into a leading global growth investment firm with thirteen offices around the globe and over $20 billion of assets under management. Mr. Denning joined GA after working with McKinsey & Company. He received an M.B.A. from Stanford Graduate School of Business in 1978. Prior to business school, Mr. Denning served for six years in the U.S. Navy, where he also earned an M.S. degree from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California. He received a B.S. from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 1970.

Mr. Denning is a member of the Board of Directors of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Bridgespan Group. He is Chair of the Global Advisory Council to the President, the Advisory Council of the Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies and the Natural Capital Advisory Council, all at Stanford University, and is a member of the Knight-Hennessy Scholar Program Advisory Board. Mr. Denning is former Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Stanford University and former Co-Chair of the Board of Directors of The Nature Conservancy (TNC). He is Emeritus Chairman and a member of the Stanford Graduate School of Business Advisory Council, and an Emeriti Trustee of The Brookings Institution, the American Museum of Natural History and the Georgia Tech Foundation. Mr. Denning was formerly a trustee of the National Parks Conservation Society and former member of the board of the McKinsey Investment Office Advisory Council, the Georgia Tech Advisory Board, the School of Economics and Management at Tsinghua University Advisory Board, the Cancer Research Institute, and the Connecticut Science Center.